

FEDERCHIMICA
CONFINDUSTRIA

Responsible Care®

7th National Conference on Sustainable Chemistry -

Innovation at the heart of the transition to a sustainable and inclusive society

Alessandro Sidoli

Milan, 30th January 2020

The National Conference on Sustainable Chemistry

- Analysis of the legislative burdens and requirements of the market helps companies for innovation related to new products and processes
- Innovation could help to reduce impacts on health, safety and environment, during the whole life cycle
- Aim: to discuss issues related to sustainability and to promote collaborations

The 7th National Conference on Sustainable Chemistry

- Themes: innovation as accelerator to reach drivers of the future and circular economy; EC Communication on Green deal
- 2 sessions
- 1st session: business innovation for the environment, safety and security – examples of companies (Allnex Italy, SIAD, Fater, Croda, Solvay Specialty Polymers)

Yearbook on Sustainable Chemistry

- It presents R&D activities for the sustainability
- Aim - to improve links between associated companies and academic departments

83 Companies

63 Universities

Available on:

annuario.federchimica.it

The 7th National Conference on Sustainable Chemistry

- 2nd session: collaboration among institutions universities and companies for innovation and sustainable development

- Institutions as a link between industry and research (ENEA)
- Examples of partnerships between companies and universities (Itelyum Regeneration, Sasol Italy)
- The role of CNR for the valorization of research

General information

- Remember to fill in the questionnaires
- Don't leave the personal effects in Auditorium during the breaks
- During the Conference photos will be taken for social networks – please let us know if you have objections
- Presentations will be published on Federchimica website and on Federchimica's LinkedIn page tomorrow
- Follow us on social networks

@Federchimica

